SUMMARY OF RECOMMENDATION

This recommendation proposes technical corrections to the Probate Code to address defects in numbering that have been brought to the attention of the Law Revision Commission. It includes clarification of the “date of death valuation” provision of Probate Code Sections 21612 (share of omitted spouse) and 21623 (share of omitted child).

The recommendation was prepared pursuant to Resolution Chapter 166 of the Statutes of 2002.

PROBATE CODE TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS

1    Numbering Corrections

2    This recommendation proposes technical corrections to the Probate Code to 3    address defects in numbering that have been brought to the attention of the Law 4    Revision Commission.

5    Clarification or Repeal of “Date of Death Valuation”

6    If the maker of a will or trust marries after making the instrument and neglects 7    thereafter to amend it to provide for the surviving spouse, the law gives the 8    surviving spouse a share of the decedent’s estate (unless it is proved that the 9    decedent intended not to provide for the surviving spouse or provided for the 10    surviving spouse by other means).<sup>1</sup> The amount of the omitted spouse’s share 11    depends on the community or separate property character of the estate.

12    The omitted spouse’s share is taken proportionately from the shares of the other 13    beneficiaries, based on the value of the estate at the date of death.<sup>2</sup> The “date of 14    death valuation” clause could be construed in such a way as to cause unintended 15    results. If estate property declines substantially in value between the date of death 16    and the date of distribution, that could result in the omitted spouse taking a larger 17    portion of the estate, and the direct beneficiaries of the decedent taking a smaller 18    portion of the estate, than they would otherwise be entitled to.

19    That is not the intention of the date of death valuation provision. Date of death 20    valuation is used to determine the relative portion of each decedent’s share that 21    will be obligated, not the total value of the property to be distributed. The statute 22    (and Comment) should be revised to state this more clearly:

23    Prob. Code § 21612 (amended). Share of omitted spouse

24    21612. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in satisfying a share provided 25    by this chapter:

26    (1) The share will first be taken from the decedent’s estate not disposed of by 27    will or trust, if any.

28    (2) If that is not sufficient, so much as may be necessary to satisfy the share 29    shall be taken from all beneficiaries of decedent’s testamentary instruments in 30    proportion to the value they may respectively receive. ~~This value shall be~~ 31    determined The proportion of each beneficiary’s share that may be taken pursuant 32    to this subdivision shall be determined based on values as of the date of the 33    decedent’s death.

34    (b) If the obvious intention of the decedent in relation to some specific gift or 35    devise or other provision of a testamentary instrument would be defeated by the 36    application of subdivision (a), the specific devise or gift or provision may be

---

1. Prob. Code §§ 21610-21611.

2. Prob. Code § 21612(a)(2).

1       exempted from the apportionment under subdivision (a), and a different
2       apportionment, consistent with the intention of the decedent, may be adopted.

3       Comment. Subdivision (a)(2) of Section 21612 is amended to make clear that it 4       is the proportionate obligation of each beneficiary, rather than the total amount of 5       the obligation, that is determined based on the date of death valuation. Thus for 6       example if there are two beneficiaries entitled to receive property valued equally 7       as of the date of death, the proportionate amount that will be taken from each is 8       one-half the value of property distributed to each, regardless of the relative value 9       of the property on the date of the distribution.

10       In a case where the share of the omitted spouse is partially satisfied pursuant to 11       subdivision (a)(1), the obligation of the beneficiaries for the remainder abates 12       proportionately. Thus if half the share of the omitted spouse is satisfied pursuant 13       to subdivision (a)(1), the amount for which each of the beneficiaries is otherwise 14       responsible pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) is reduced by half.

15       A parallel change should be made to Probate Code Section 21623, governing the 16       share of an omitted child.

PROPOSED LEGISLATION

17   Prob. Code § 1004 (amended). Lis pendens

18       SECTION 1. Section 1004 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

19       1004. If a proceeding under this code affects the title to or the right of possession 20       of real property, notice of the pendency of the proceeding may be filed pursuant to 21       Section 409 Title 4.5 (commencing with Section 405) of Part 2 of the Code of 22       Civil Procedure.

23       Comment. Section 1004 is amended to reflect relocation of the lis pendens statutes from 24       former Code of Civil Procedure Section 409 to Code of Civil Procedure Section 405 et seq. See 25       1992 Cal. Stat. ch. 883, §§ 1, 2.

26   Prob. Code § 2356.5 (amended). Conservatee with dementia

27       SEC. 2. Section 2356.5 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

28       2356.5. (a) The Legislature hereby finds and declares:

29       (1) That people with dementia, as defined in the last published edition of the 30       “Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders,” should have a 31       conservatorship to serve their unique and special needs.

32       (2) That, by adding powers to the probate conservatorship for people with 33       dementia, their unique and special needs can be met. This will reduce costs to the 34       conservatee and the family of the conservatee, reduce costly administration by 35       state and county government, and safeguard the basic dignity and rights of the 36       conservatee.

37       (3) That it is the intent of the Legislature to recognize that the administration of 38       psychotropic medications has been, and can be, abused by caregivers and,

1 therefore, granting powers to a conservator to authorize these medications for the 2 treatment of dementia requires the protections specified in this section.

3 (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a conservator may authorize the 4 placement of a conservatee in a secured perimeter residential care facility for the 5 elderly operated pursuant to Section 1569.698 of the Health and Safety Code, or a 6 locked and secured nursing facility which specializes in the care and treatment of 7 people with dementia pursuant to subdivision (c) of Section 1569.691 of the 8 Health and Safety Code, and which has a care plan that meets the requirements of 9 Section 87724 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations, upon a court's 10 finding, by clear and convincing evidence, of all of the following:

11 (1) The conservatee has dementia, as defined in the last published edition of the 12 "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders."

13 (2) The conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent to this 14 placement and has at least one mental function deficit pursuant to subdivision (a) 15 of ~~Section 812~~ Section 811, and this deficit significantly impairs the person's 16 ability to understand and appreciate the consequences of his or her actions 17 pursuant to subdivision (b) of ~~Section 812~~ Section 811.

18 (3) The conservatee needs or would benefit from a restricted and secure 19 environment, as demonstrated by evidence presented by the physician or 20 psychologist referred to in paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

21 (4) The court finds that the proposed placement in a locked facility is the least 22 restrictive placement appropriate to the needs of the conservatee.

23 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a conservator of a person may 24 authorize the administration of medications appropriate for the care and treatment 25 of dementia, upon a court's finding, by clear and convincing evidence, of all of the 26 following:

27 (1) The conservatee has dementia, as defined in the last published edition of the 28 "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders."

29 (2) The conservatee lacks the capacity to give informed consent to the 30 administration of medications appropriate to the care of dementia, and has at least 31 one mental function deficit pursuant to subdivision (a) of ~~Section 812~~ Section 811, 32 and this deficit or deficits significantly impairs the person's ability to understand 33 and appreciate the consequences of his or her actions pursuant to subdivision (b) 34 of ~~Section 812~~ Section 811.

35 (3) The conservatee needs or would benefit from appropriate medication as 36 demonstrated by evidence presented by the physician or psychologist referred to in 37 paragraph (3) of subdivision (f).

38 (d) Pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 2355, in the case of a person who is an 39 adherent of a religion whose tenets and practices call for a reliance on prayer alone 40 for healing, the treatment required by the conservator under subdivision (c) shall 41 be by an accredited practitioner of that religion in lieu of the administration of 42 medications.

1 (e) A conservatee who is to be placed in a facility pursuant to this section shall 2 not be placed in a mental health rehabilitation center as described in Section 5675 3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, or in an institution for mental disease as 4 described in Section 5900 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

5 (f) A petition for authority to act under this section shall be governed by Section 6 2357, except:

7 (1) The conservatee shall be represented by an attorney pursuant to Chapter 4 8 (commencing with Section 1470) of Part 1.

9 (2) The conservatee shall be produced at the hearing, unless excused pursuant to 10 Section 1893.

11 (3) The petition shall be supported by a declaration of a licensed physician, or a 12 licensed psychologist within the scope of his or her licensure, regarding each of 13 the findings required to be made under this section for any power requested, 14 except that the psychologist has at least two years of experience in diagnosing 15 dementia.

16 (4) The petition may be filed by any of the persons designated in Section 1891.

17 (g) The court investigator shall annually investigate and report to the court every 18 two years pursuant to Sections 1850 and 1851 if the conservator is authorized to 19 act under this section. In addition to the other matters provided in Section 1851, 20 the conservatee shall be specifically advised by the investigator that the 21 conservatee has the right to object to the conservator's powers granted under this 22 section, and the report shall also include whether powers granted under this section 23 are warranted. If the conservatee objects to the conservator's powers granted under 24 this section, or the investigator determines that some change in the powers granted 25 under this section is warranted, the court shall provide a copy of the report to the 26 attorney of record for the conservatee. If no attorney has been appointed for the 27 conservatee, one shall be appointed pursuant to Chapter 4 (commencing with 28 Section 1470) of Part 1. The attorney shall, within 30 days after receiving this 29 report, do one of the following:

30 (1) File a petition with the court regarding the status of the conservatee.

31 (2) File a written report with the court stating that the attorney has met with the 32 conservatee and determined that the petition would be inappropriate.

33 (h) A petition to terminate authority granted under this section shall be governed 34 by Section 2359.

35 (i) Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect a conservatorship of the 36 estate of a person who has dementia.

37 (j) Nothing in this section shall affect the laws that would otherwise apply in 38 emergency situations.

39 (k) Nothing in this section shall affect current law regarding the power of a 40 probate court to fix the residence of a conservatee or to authorize medical 41 treatment for any conservatee who has not been determined to have dementia.

42 (l) (1) Until such time as the conservatorship becomes subject to review pursuant 43 to Section 1850, this section shall not apply to a conservatorship established on or

1 before the effective date of the adoption of Judicial Council forms that reflect the 2 procedures authorized by this section, or January 1, 1998, whichever occurs first.

3 (2) Upon the adoption of Judicial Council forms that reflect the procedures 4 authorized by this section or January 1, 1998, whichever occurs first, this section 5 shall apply to any conservatorships established after that date.

2 enumerated on enactment. See 1990 Cal. Stat. ch. 79, § 14.

3     Prob. Code § 19054 (amended). When notice is excused

4     SEC. 13. Section 19054 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

5     19054. Notwithstanding Section 19050, the trustee need not give notice to a 6 creditor even though the trustee has knowledge of the creditor if either of the 7 following conditions is satisfied:

8     (a) The creditor has filed a claim as provided in this part.

9     (b) The creditor has demanded payment and the trustee elects to treat the 10 demand as a claim under Section 19153 19154.

11     Comment. Section 19054 is amended to correct an incorrect cross-reference. See Section 12 19154 (election to treat demand as claim).

13     Prob. Code § 21401 (amended). Abatement

14     SEC. 14. Section 21401 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

15     21401. Except as provided in Sections 6562 21612 (omitted spouse) and 6573
16 21623 (omitted children) and in Division 10 (commencing with Section 20100) 17 (proration of taxes), shares of beneficiaries abate as provided in this part for all 18 purposes, including payment of the debts, expenses, and charges specified in 19 Section 11420, satisfaction of gifts, and payment of expenses on specifically 20 devised property pursuant to Section 12002, and without any priority as between 21 real and personal property.

22     Comment. Section 21401 is amended to reflect relocation of former Section 6562 to Section 23 21612 (via former Section 26112) (share of omitted spouse) and of former Section 6573 to 24 Section 21623 (share of omitted child). See 1997 Cal. Stat. ch. 724, §§ 17, 34.

25     Prob. Code § 26112 (renumbered and amended). Share of omitted spouse

26     SEC. 15. Section 26112 of the Probate Code is renumbered and amended, to 27 read:

28     ~~26112~~ 21612. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in satisfying a share 29 provided by this chapter:

30     (1) The share will first be taken from the decedent's estate not disposed of by 31 will or trust, if any.

32     (2) If that is not sufficient, so much as may be necessary to satisfy the share shall 33 be taken from all beneficiaries of decedent's testamentary instruments in 34 proportion to the value they may respectively receive. ~~This value shall be~~ 35 ~~determined~~ The proportion of each beneficiary's share that may be taken pursuant 36 to this subdivision shall be determined based on values as of the date of the 37 decedent's death.

38     (b) If the obvious intention of the decedent in relation to some specific gift or 39 devise or other provision of a testamentary instrument would be defeated by the 40 application of subdivision (a), the specific devise or gift or provision may be

1 exempted from the apportionment under subdivision (a), and a different
2 apportionment, consistent with the intention of the decedent, may be adopted.

3 Comment. Former Section 26112 is renumbered as 21612. It was incorrectly numbered on 4 enactment. See 1997 Cal. Stat. ch. 724, § 34.

5 Subdivision (a)(2) of Section 21612 is amended to make clear that it is the proportionate 6 obligation of each beneficiary, rather than the total amount of the obligation, that is determined 7 based on the date of death valuation. Thus for example if there are two beneficiaries entitled to 8 receive property valued equally as of the date of death, the proportionate amount that will be 9 taken from each is one-half the value of property distributed to each, regardless of the relative 10 value of the property on the date of the distribution.

11 In a case where the share of the omitted spouse is partially satisfied pursuant to subdivision 12 (a)(1), the obligation of the beneficiaries for the remainder abates proportionately. Thus if half the 13 share of the omitted spouse is satisfied pursuant to subdivision (a)(1), the amount for which each 14 of the beneficiaries is otherwise responsible pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) is reduced by half.

15 Prob. Code § 21623 (amended). Share of omitted child

16 SEC. 16. Section 21623 of the Probate Code is amended to read:

17 21623. (a) Except as provided in subdivision (b), in satisfying a share provided 18 by this chapter:

19 (1) The share will first be taken from the decedent's estate not disposed of by 20 will or trust, if any.

21 (2) If that is not sufficient, so much as may be necessary to satisfy the share shall 22 be taken from all beneficiaries of decedent's testamentary instruments in 23 proportion to the value they may respectively receive. ~~This value shall be~~ 24 determined The proportion of each beneficiary's share that may be taken pursuant 25 to this subdivision shall be determined based on values as of the date of the 26 decedent's death.

27 (b) If the obvious intention of the decedent in relation to some specific gift or 28 devise or other provision of a testamentary instrument would be defeated by the 29 application of subdivision (a), the specific devise or gift or provision of a 30 testamentary instrument may be exempted from the apportionment under 31 subdivision (a), and a different apportionment, consistent with the intention of the 32 decedent, may be adopted.

33 Comment. Subdivision (a)(2) of Section 21623 is amended to make clear that it is the 34 proportionate obligation of each beneficiary, rather than the total amount of the obligation, that is 35 determined based on the date of death valuation. Thus for example if there are two beneficiaries 36 entitled to receive property valued equally as of the date of death, the proportionate amount that 37 will be taken from each is one-half the value of property distributed to each, regardless of the 38 relative value of the property on the date of the distribution.

39 In a case where the share of the omitted child is partially satisfied pursuant to subdivision 40 (a)(1), the obligation of the beneficiaries for the remainder abates proportionately. Thus if half the 41 share of the omitted child is satisfied pursuant to subdivision (a)(1), the amount for which each of 42 the beneficiaries is otherwise responsible pursuant to subdivision (a)(2) is reduced by half.
